

Horsham Township has developed a superb reputation with the largest park and trail system in Montgomery County. These Memorial Benches are a great way to honor loved ones who have passed away, those who have served our country or community, or just those who have done so much and need recognized. Where better to be recognized than right here in one of Horsham Township Parks!

Where can my bench be installed?

The Memorial Benches are intended to be in a well-populated area for community members and visitors to utilize and show their respect for those being honored. These benches will be placed along the Power Line Trail and in Horsham Township Community Parks. These parks include Kohler Park, Deep Meadow Park, Samuel Carpenter Park, Chestnut Creek Park, Cedar Hill Park and Lukens Park. They will come with a 4"x6" green plaque, mounted to the backrest of the bench with the name of the person being honored engraved in tan lettering.

Reservations can be emailed to ihammer@horsham.org or dropped off at the Public Works Building located at 1005 Horsham Road
